DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Circuit Judge,
HON. CHARLES HARDIN,
of Mercer County

For Railroad Commissioner,
WILLIAM F. KLAIR
of Fayette County

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

William H. Shanks announces his candidacy for Representative from Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The most delightful session of the Kentucky Press Association we have ever attended was held last week at Cerulean Springs, down in the western part of the state, in Trigg county, the home of fair women and brave men. Both the L. & N., and the Illinois Central railroad companies tendered their usual transportation courtesies to the members of the press. The L. & N., which carried the larger part of the Association in a body from Louisville to Cerulean and return, placed two of its handsome steel electric lighted and electric fanned coaches at their disposal and whirled them over its southern cannonball route southward at a speed of almost sixty miles an hour through fields of ripening grain, sprouting corn and tobacco planting. Division Passenger Agent Harlow, General Passenger Agent Bower, Superintendent Egan and other officials escorted the press gang and made them feel at home and realize how completely this great railway system looks after the comfort and convenience of its patrons and friends.

No more delightful retreat for rest, recuperation and recreation can be imagined than fair Cerulean. A splendid hotel service under Capt. T. O. Turner and wife, acres of yellow-legged chickens with plenty of other good things for the inner man, health-giving waters, pleasant shades, sweet music, and berries of Kentucky beauties make this an ideal summer resort and an entrancing spot for such a meeting as the Kentucky editors held. Business sessions, pleasure jaunts, and other forms of diversion for both men and women made the time pass all too swiftly and everyone regretted the time to say good-bye. We had always thought that the hospitality of the famous Blue Grass region of Kentucky was unequalled and unsurpassed throughout the world, but discovered that the good people of the western end of the state are equally as gracious to the strangers within their gates. Editor John S. Lawrence and Mrs. Lawrence of the Cadiz Record, in whose county of Trigg, Cerulean lies, personally saw to it that everyone was made to feel at home and could have been no more hospitable had the association been guests in their own home. It was a meeting long to be remembered, and whenever and wherever the press gang assembles again fond memories will ever linger of those good times under Cerulean skies.

Senator Paynter announces his withdrawal from the Senatorial race Sunday after the weakest effort ever made by a United States Senator from Kentucky seeking an endorsement from his people. Ollie James wants every friend to vote for him, however, notwithstanding the fact that he has no opposition. Paynter's name is still on the ballot, and James' friends should go to the polls.

The presiding officer of the state senate should be a man who will not truckle to any of the big interests which seek to control legislation in Kentucky. A vote for E. J. McDermott, for Lieutenant Governor in the democratic primary next Saturday, means a vote for the good of the people.

A vote for Barksdale Hamlett for State Superintendent of Schools means better schools. Vote for him Saturday.

Every democrat who loves his party should vote for McCreary and McDermott Saturday.

CELEBRATES 80TH BIRTHDAY

Mr. W. C. Fish, of Paint Lick, the venerable father of W. S. Fish, of this place, on last Friday celebrated his 80th birthday by having his children, grandchildren and many other relatives present at his commodious home and enjoying a sumptuous dinner and the day in general. Mr. Fish is remarkably well preserved, carrying 80 years as lightly as the average men of 60, and besides looking after his banking business, rides horse back over his large farm and personally superintends almost every detail on his place. His son and family went up from here to be present at the grand occasion.

KILLER THE RAT KILLER

Editor Green R. Keller, of the Carlisle Mercury, as grand high commander of the Rat Slaying, has issued a proclamation calling on all of the citizens of Nicholas county, to observe July 3 as a day to kill rats. Annually on May 27 for a number of years Mr. Keller has led the slayers against the rats with the result that hundreds were killed, but as that day was not observed this year, July 3 was chosen.

Commissioner's Sale

LINCOLN CIRCUIT COURT

L. C. Dunn's creditors, Plaintiffs, vs. L. C. Dunn and etc., Defendants. Notice of sale.

Pursuant to a judgment rendered in the above styled action at the May term, 1911, of the aforesaid court, undersigned Master Commissioner will on Monday, July 10, 1911, County Court Day, at 1:30 o'clock, P. M., in front of the court house door in Stanford, Ky., sell at public outcry to the highest and best bidder, the following real estate, or so much thereof as will satisfy the judgments and claims hereinafter mentioned:

(1)—The undivided one-third interest in remainder, subject to the life estate of Mrs. Mary M. Dunn, in the tract of land near Hustonville, Lincoln county, Ky., beginning at a stone in the line of Jos. Coffey; thence S 86 W 14 poles to Coffey's corner; S 25 W 6 poles to link to a pin oak, corner to same; S 83 W 73 poles to link to a stone in the ditch of a road in the Rachel Carpenter line; thence her line 2 1/2 W 85 poles to a stone near a branch; thence up the branch N 5 W 101 poles to the beginning, containing 54 acres 3 rods and 27 poles of land.

(2)—If the sale of the interest in the above described tract is not sufficient to satisfy the indebtedness of L. C. Dunn, and the costs hereof, I will then sell his remainder interest, subject to the life estate of Mrs. Jennie Dunn in the tract near Hustonville, Lincoln county, Ky., bounded on the North and Northwest by the lands of M. North; on the East by the land of J. T. Good; and on the West by the lands of L. C. Dunn and Eugenia Dunn, containing about 39 acres.

(3)—If the amount raised by the sale of the two tracts is insufficient for the purpose aforesaid mentioned, the Commissioner will then sell the interest of L. C. Dunn in the tract bounded on the North and Northeast by the land of M. F. North; on the South by the land of J. T. Good; on the North and Northwest by the land of Mrs. Mary M. Dunn, containing about 25 acres, and is situated near Hustonville, in Lincoln county, Ky. The said L. C. Dunn also owns the remainder interest in this tract subject to the life estate of Mrs. Jennie Dunn, which interest the Commissioner will sell.

(4)—If the sale of the 3 foregoing boundaries fails to realize a sufficient sum to satisfy the aforesaid indebtedness, the Com'r will then sell the remainder interest of L. C. Dunn, subject to the life estate of Mrs. Jennie Dunn, in the tract near Hustonville, in Lincoln county, Ky., beginning on Pine Lick at a stone Southwest side of Hustonville and Middleburg turnpike road; thence with Dunn's line S 43 W 28 poles to a stone in said line, S 53 W 15 poles to a stone on the side of said pike; thence N 53 W 15 poles to the beginning, containing 2 acres 2 rods and 20 poles of land.

Terms:—The said property will be sold on a credit of six months, and the purchaser will be required to give bond for the purchase price, with approved personal security, payable to the Commissioner, bearing six per cent interest from date of sale, with lien retained on the land sold to secure the payment of said bond, which shall also have the force and effect of a judgment.

The purpose of this sale is to satisfy the judgments and claims against the said L. C. Dunn, amounting to approximately the sum of $1,725.00, which have been filed against him in this action; also the costs of this suit, amounting to about $160.00.

This, June 12, 1911.

A WINNER

SENATOR G. T. WYATT

Of Olmstead, Logan County, Third Congressional District

Senator Wyatt is one of the candidates for the nomination for commissioner of agriculture before the Democratic of the State in the primary July 1, and indications are that he is a winner. He has been making rapid strides for the past few years in the interest of the farmers of Kentucky, and being actively engaged in farming, knows what the farmers in the commonwealth stand in need of.

He has been honored by his own people by having been sent to the State Senate, and his record there has been highly creditable and particularly notable for his work in the interest of legislation for the farmers of the State.

The Bosworth-Wyatt good roads amendment to the constitution is a part of Kentucky's history. Senator Wyatt was chairman of the good roads congress held at Louisville last December, and has been actively engaged in this work for several years, believing with all others that the farmers are the first to be benefited. He is also a stern advocate of educating the farmer along the lines of his occupation toward the intensive and co-operative farming.

Since there has never been a commissioner of agriculture elected from the First, Second, Third or Fourth congressional district, which is notably the farming section of the State our farmers should see to it that Senator Wyatt is nominated, and in November triumphantly elect the ticket.

He would make a strong candidate for the place for the final battle, and would greatly add to the strength of the Democratic ticket.
